

In the Specification:

Applicant respectfully disagrees with the Examiner that new matter has been added. Pages 26-42 were part of the initial disclosure in the initial filing. The 73 embodiments are in the Original filing but had the word "Claim" instead of "Embodiment" due to a misprint. These were not meant to be claims in the original filing but details of the embodiment and are part of the initial disclosure.